

CANDIDATES FOR SPRINGFIELD ZONE VICE-PRESIDENT & CHRISTIAN LIFE CHAIRMAN

Kristi Hosea just recently completed serving a term as LWML Central Illinois District Recording Secretary. While Kristi was ready to coast for a while, God always has a plan in motion and so here she stands ready to bloom wherever she's planted.

Kristi lives in Springfield with her husband Paul and their two boys Jonah and Micah. They attend Trinity Lutheran Church where Kristi is a member of the Women with Mission group. In her professional life, Kristi is a credentialed advocate currently employed by MADD as a Victim Services Manager for the Illinois, Iowa and Wisconsin Region. In her spare time, Kristi likes to organize, cook, read and play mindless computer games to relax.

Kimberly Janssen has served on the 2011 National LWML Convention Committee for Peoria, was chairman for the LWML CID YWR (Young Woman's Recruitment) Committee, and has served as Ladies Guild President at Good Shepherd, Rochester. In addition to her LWML activities, she also serves on the LCMS CID Human Care Committee.

Kimberly works diligently in the Human Services field, touching lives with her gift for working with individuals and families who have special needs, those in crisis, and connecting resources to people.

Kimberly and her husband, Rev. Samuel Janssen, reside in Rochester, where he has served for 14 years. Kimberly is known for her enthusiasm and uplifting spirit and her gift of gathering people and bringing conversation and camaraderie and sharing the Lord in her work, with her friends, and in her actions.

Dawn Zerkel currently serves as the LWML CID Vice President of Communication as well as the Technology Chairman. She has previously served as Christian Life Chairman, Vice President of Christian Life, Fall Retreat Chairman, National Assembly of Leaders (PING) and various other capacities as needed. She has served on the National LWML Technology Committee as well as the Springfield Zone Secretary/Treasurer.

Dawn received her Bachelors in Elementary Education from Benedictine University in Springfield in 2009. She has been a substitute teacher at area Lutheran Schools for many years and most recently taught as the 5th-6th Grade teacher at Trinity Lutheran Church in Arenzville. She currently teaches 3rd Grade at St. Agnes School, Springfield.

Dawn and her husband Paul have been married for 19 years and are currently members at Bethlehem Lutheran Church in Petersburg. In whatever spare time she has, she enjoys a variety of hobbies including crafts, home repairs, expanding her technology skills and traveling.
